TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the young folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible: and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston. Dr. I. I. Hayes, Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton, Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May," Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens, C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield, S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Its reading is adapted to the old and young, is very varied in its character: sprightly and entertaining. It gives

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Wednesday, December 17th, 1873.

Repeal of the Bankrupt Law.

From all indications it is highly probable that a repeal of the Bankrupt law will be effected within a short time. The feature of involuntary bankruptcy has, during the late panic, been oppressively used, and the moneyed corporations and the North and West are clamorous for a repeal. It is doubtful whether there will be any relief to the honest bankrupt after two or three weeks; therefore all who desire the benefit of the present law should apply at once to the proper court.

Political Vagary.

The Legislature is seriously asked to provide for the election of a Judge to fill a position on the Bench of the Supreme Court, which was at one time vacant, by the resignation of Judge Dick and the death af Judge Boyden. The same bill provides for the election of Judges the Superior Court, which have been from time to time made vacant by resignation or otherwise.

It will be news to the people of North Carolina that any vacancies exist, or may exist in August next, in the Superior Court. We really supposed that Governor Caldwell had provided for the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Boyden by the appointment of Judge Bynum. Why did not the gentleman who discovered this amazing circumstance, cause his bill to provide for the election of a Judge to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Judge Settle several years ago? True, an appointment has been made to the position, but it is a strange oversight to have omitted the provision. The power of the Governor to fill these and other vacancies, was, at one time, questioned; but the matter has been adjudicated by the Supreme Court. This bill, however, is but a piece with the grasping efforts of the Legislature. Such efforts disclose, in their true colors, the disposition of the majority in the Legislature. Not representing a majority in the State, they are reckless in their schemes to rule the people. This session of the General Assembly, in spite of the expressed will of the people last August against it, is prolonged; and some of the principal reasons for its extension, seem to be to gerrymander the State, and to make laws which are clearly unconstitutional.

A Peril of the Deep.

The ship River Eden cleared from London on the 15th of September for Valparaiso, with a general cargo, including something over one hundred tons of gunpowder, and a quantity of lucifer matches. Nothing unusual occurred on the voyage till the 7th of October, when the master, Capt. Bowden, commenced to behave in a strange manner. His conduct was attributed to insanity. On the 14th of the same month the bark Elizabeth Graham was sighted. The chief mate of the Eden, Mr. Clarkson, sent a boat to the Elizabeth Graham to request her commander to come aboard. He did so, and had a consultation with Mr. Clarkson, whom he advised to place the Captain under no restraint, as he seemed hamless, but to soothe and keep him quiet, and to make for Pernambuco. About midnight the ship was found to be on fire. In an attempt to secure Captain Bowden, he wounded the second mate by a pistol shot. The crazy Captain had poured parafine oil on his cabin floor, and fired it. The terrified crew had only to leave the ship. The Captain refused to go, and was left by the crew, who pulled on board the brig Jannita which was fortunately near. Two of the latter's crew volunteered to rescue Capt. Bowden, and succeeded, and almost immediately the River Eden blew up. Four days after the rescue, Captain Bowden managed to jump into the sea and was drowned.

This drama surpasses the fiction of Charles Reade's "Foul Play." The horror of such a situation as the sixteen men who composed the crew of the Eden were in, is almost beyond the reach of imagination, and is another proof of the truth of the saying, that truth is stranger than fiction.

— Robert T. Reggin, of South Carolina, convicted of being a Kuklux, and sent to the penitentiary, has been pardoned.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Dec. 15.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieut. Gov. Brogden in the chair.

Introduction of Bills and Resolutions.

By Mr. Nicholson: A bill to amend chapter 136, laws of 1871-'72. Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Mr. Murphy: A bill to lay off a new county by the name of Jefferson. Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Mr. Flemming: A resolution authorizing and directing the Governor in regard to the affairs of the Western North Carolina Railroad. Lies over.

By the same: A resolution in relation to Sheriffs. Lies over.

By Mr. Waring: A bill in relation to Court Houses and Jails. Referred to committee on Public Buildings.

By the same: A bill for the protection of sheep. Referred to the Agricultural committee.

By Mr. Morehead, of Guilford: A bill to encourage immigration and promote manufactories. Referred.

By the same: A bill to amend the Revenue Law. Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Mr. Harriss: A resolution of instruction to the committee on Printing. Placed on the calendar.

Special Order.

At 12 o'clock the bill to make uniform the rate of interest in North Carolina, came up as the special order.

The bill provides that the provisions in the acts incorporating the Bank of Mecklenburg, the Bank of Greensboro', the Bank of Statesville, the Bank of New Hanover, the Dawson Bank, and all other acts of incorporation granting banking privileges since the adoption of the present constitution, authorizing the lending money at a greater rate of interest than that allowed by the general laws of the State, and also authorizing the same to pay interest on deposits, be and the same are hereby repealed.

The bill goes on to provide the penalty for demanding more than eight per cent. for money loaned, etc.

Mr. Waring offered an amendment to strike out the Bank of Mecklenburg.

The vote was taken on the amendments and adopted.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, offered a substitute for the bill, which proposes as the only change the following: Strikes out the preamble and first section of the bill, adds a section repealing the provisions of any act conflicting with the first section of the substitute, and puts individuals and banks on the same footing.

Mr. Troy offered an amendment excluding from the operations of the above bill, Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. Norwood, an amendment that the operations of the bill shall not impair present contracts, &c.

Mr. Murphy had always favored free banking, but from the experience of the late panic thought legislation necessary for the protection of the people. He was in favor of the bill properly amended, &c.

Mr. Seymour called the previous question on the passage of the bill.

The amendment of Mr. Troy was adopted and Mr. Norwood's rejected.

The substitute of Mr. Morehead failed, and the original bill, as amended, passed its second reading, and its further consideration made the special order for 12½ o'clock to-morrow.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order at 10 a. m,

By Mr. Shaw, a bill declaratory of the meaning of section 50, chapter 63, Battle's Revisal. Referred.

By Mr. Warlick, a bill to extend the time for taking out land grants in Burke county. Referred.

By Mr. Blythe, a bill to amend section 5, Chapter 88, Battle's Revisal. Referred.

The bill to incorporate the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to amend the act for amnesty and pardon was taken up.

[The bill adds to the act an additional section which provides: That no person shall be held liable in any civil action, whether already commenced or hereafter to be commenced, for any violation of law for which amnesty and pardon are provided in the preceding sections of this act; but all such actions shall, upon the motion of the defendant or defendants therein, and upon the payment by him or them, of all costs then accrued, including the costs of such motion, be dismissed.]

On motion of Mr. McGehee, the bill was made the special order for to-morrow at 12 m.

The bill to increase the salary of the Judge of the first Judicial District of North Carolina to $3,000 per annum, on account of the addition of the counties of Dare and Northampton to his District, was taken up.

Mr. Guyther thought that the Judge of the District should be paid for the additional labor put upon him.

Mr. Bowman thought that the difficulty could be easily remedied by placing Northampton and Dare counties in their proper districts. He moved to lay the bill on the table. The motion to table was adopted.

Special Order.

The bill to amend the charter of the North Carolina Railroad Company, and for other purposes (consolidation bill,) was taken up as the special order. The bill was on its second reading. A large number of amendments were adopted and rejected, and pending definite action the House adjourned.

— The Connecticut papers tell of a man in that State who can repeat, word for word, every book and newspaper article that he has read for the past ten years. That is very likely; the man can't read.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— Pius IX has buried over one hundred cardinals.

— The President's father willed $2,000 to the old negro nurse who used to attend him in his childhood.

— A farmer of Wicomico county, Maryland, reports that from one quart of rice planted in deep, black soil, he raised 24 quarts of rice, weighing 28 pounds. It was planted about the middle of April, in rows 18 inches apart, and cut October 27. Single grains produced from 5 to 25 stalks, from 3½ to 5 feet high.

— Cicero was no better than some of the distinguished members of the bar of the present day. The following extract from a letter to his friend Atticus, reads very much like an extract from that of a modern lawyer. Cicero writes: "We have just such a jury as we wish to get, and the best possible understanding with the prosecutor." How is this for two thousand years ago, and for Cicero, who is called "the father of his country?" History does repeat itself.

— The Lexington (Ky.) Press of Dec. 4 says: "William Bolin, a white man, convicted some days ago of petit larceny by stealing lumber, and sentenced to receive ten lashes, was whipped at the jail yesterday. At the trial Bolin appeared on crutches, and the delay in the execution of the sentence was attributable to the condition of his health. The general statutes which went into effect last Monday abolish the whipping post, and Mr. Bolin can go before the world to-day with the proud consciousness of having been the last man to expiate his crimes under the old law."

THE SUN.

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows,

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN,—Same size as the Daily Sun. $3 00 a pear. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address, Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of 'steel plates,' is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th, 1873.

Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S A.

PARTIES in need of the best articles of coal and wood in the city, will find it to their interest to patronize the new Yard at corner Front and Mulberry st.

J. A. SPRINGER.

SEVERAL disorderly conduct cases were adjudicated by the Mayor this morning.

VANORSDELL was occupied in photographing D. A. Smith & Co.'s furniture establishment this morning.

CLOTHING is down, money being scarce, we are offering our entire stock of clothing, boots and shoes at suspension prices.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

How are you going to spend your Christmas, is now the interrogation propounded by clerks and others.

MANY fair ones are in the city visiting their friends. May their sojourn among us be pleasant and long, say we.

THE attention of all who have not paid their taxes is called to Sheriff Black's advertisement. Pay up and save costs.

THE work of stuccoing the Lutheran Church goes bravely on, and in a few days it will present a very handsome appearance.

A VERY fashionable marriage at the Front Street Methodist Church last night. May the path of the bridal pair be strewn with the flowers of contentment and happiness.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

EXTRAORDINARY.—A gentleman informed us, in answer to our usual morning interrogation, that there were positively three chickens and one turkey up in his neighborhood that had been running at large for a whole week, and had not as yet been molested. This is a case of extraordinariness, and we have simply to say that somebody has lied to him most egregiously, or that the turkey and chickens are so deucedly poor that the epicurean thieves won't take them.

EFFECTS of panic tremendous: Tumble in prices at

S. HANSTEIN & Co's
New York House,
tf 15 Market st.

RETURNED.—Capt. C. B. Phillips who has been North for the past three weeks in the interest of the bar and river improvements, arrived in the city last night and returned to his post this morning. During the Captain's visit he purched a dredging machine and an apparatus for removing the logs which are sunk and broken off some two or three feet under the water. The machines will arrive in about a week and will be called into requisition immediately upon their arrival.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 112¼.

— Buy coal of Springer.

— Cockroaches still live.

— Most delightful winter.

— Jordan Stone is a brick.

— Buy Christmas presents.

— Boston tea party yesterday.

— Santa Claus squints this way.

— The winter skies are beautiful.

— Magistrates are busy now-days.

— Read the Legislative proceedings.

— Attorneys are busy preparing for court.

— A little cash will now buy a lot of goods.

— Many new yachts building for next season.

— The Christmas music is about all learned.

— There is not a "glass egg" for sale in this city.

— Give us more currency. We want a lot ourself!

— Jewelry sales are not very extensive now-days.

— The toy shops make the childrens, little hearts beat.

— Duprez and Benedict's Minstrels sing in Raleigh to-night.

— Christmas goods are now for sale. Read George Myers' advertisement.

— We return thanks to Gen. Allan Rutherford for valuable documents.

— Heinsberger has a fine Burdette Organ, with five stops. It's cheap and good.

— There are thirty claims filed from this county with the Commissioners in Washington.

— Buy a new dress of Weill for your Christmas present to your wife—if you have got her.

— There are over one hundred deeds in the office of the Probate Judge that should be registered. Some of them are fifty years old. Why will people be so careless?

THE mortuary among the canines, and the sale of strychnine, must be great in our city, if every one puts their threats into execution.

AN improvement in the acoustics of the City Hall was made to-day, which prevents the rolling echo so disagreeable to a speaker, and fatal to the interest of an audience. Dr. Barker will continue his free Lectures on phrenology, to-night, in this Hall.

AN IMPOSTOR.—We have been informed that there is a mulatto man who has been "doing the town up" for the past two weeks in quite a different manner than is usually the custom of tourist or bereaved parents. This man represents himself to be from a distance, and is soliciting aid to bury his child, which was "burned to death yesterday." The man is evidently an impostor, from the fact that he has been at the business for three weeks, and certainly has buried his offspring ere this. Look out for him.

CARELESS DRIVING.—A few days ago a nurse with a baby in her arms was run over by a horse and buggy. The nurse was knocked down and in falling had presence of mind enough to toss the baby from her, which saved the little things life. The child, which is only about one year old, received some bruises by the fall, but it is hoped that they are not of a serious nature. The nurse was badly bruised, the wheels passing over her body, but fortunately the buggy was light, and she escaped with whole bones. The driver seated in the buggy drove on without stopping to see, or apparently caring, what damage he had done. He is not known by the nurse or any one who noticed the gross piece of carelessness, or he would be held to account for his indifference and a violation of the city ordinance.

THE FORGERY CASE.—F. M. Brunson, who was arrested last week, charged with forgery, and with obtaining money under false pretenses, to which we have alluded heretofore, came up before Justice Cassidey, at his office this morning, and from the mass of testimony and the large number of witnesses examined, it appears that a systematic robbery of cotton had been going on for a considerable time from the depot of the W., C. & A. R. R., the same being taken by the means of false entries of the way freight bills and fictitious consignors.

The matter was very patiently and fully investigated, and the Court deeming that there was probable and strong cause to believe that the defendant is guilty of the charges preferred against him, it was ordered that he be held in the sum of one thousand dollars bond in each case, for his appearance at the Superior Court. So far the defendant has been unable to give the bonds, and he is now in jail.

STATE ITEMS.

Times are dull in Enfield.

Statesville has organized a Terpischorean Club.

The poultry market of Newbern is well supplied.

The Tremaine Brothers are about to visit Tarboro again.

Newbern is to have a masquerade ball on New Year's night.

The Merchants of Halifax county are going to form a Pretection Association.

The Enfield Agricultural Club had a meeting and a big dinner on Wednesday.

There is to be a big tournament at Bay river, Pamlico county, on the 23d inst.

There is to be another gala day at Runnymede Park, near Tarboro, on the 23d inst.

It is proposed to establish a library, by contribution, in connection with the Newbern Academy.

A. M. Southwich, a citizen of Halifax county, was found dead near the Edgecombe line on Monday of last week.

Mr. Charles Clark, living in the vicinity of Seaboard, fell from his stable loft the other day and broke his leg.

The gin house of Hon. Geo. Howard, near Tarboro, was destroyed by fire on Saturday before last. The loss amounts to $1,500. A man by the name of Reddin Dunn was arrested charged with being the incendiary.

The Raleigh News says we have already stated the fact that the Officers and Teachers of the Oxford Orphan Asylum propose to gladden the hearts of the poor little unfortunate of this school with the arrangement of a Christmas morn, but we are sorry to say that contributions for this purpose are being sent in slowly. Let everybody that can send in something for the tree. It is but a small mite from your pockets, but how large will it appear in the eyes of the children. Think of the poor orphans, ye that are able to contribute, and send in at once to Rev. J. D. Cohen, Oxford. Boxes can be sent by freight or express.

The Charlotte Observer says that on last Saturday morning between 5 and 6 o'clock Joseph Baker, who was to have been hanged on Friday next, for the murder of Newton Wilfong, colored, effected his escape from the jail in this city. Sheriff Alexander, so soon as the escape was known, promptly had handbills printed offering a reward of $200 for the apprehension of Baker; he also sent out a posse to search for him, but up to the time of this writing has been heard to warrant the conclusion that he has been arrested. Unless he is a greater fool than we take him to be, there will be no execution in Charlotte next Friday.

The Milton Chronicle, referring to the bill introduced into the Senate a few days since by Mr. Allen, requiring the advertising in some paper of all properties sold under execution, says of it:

"This is a bill of vital import, and should receive the unanimous sanction of the Legislature. The great sacrifice of property by the present obscure method of advertising in manuscript at two or three cross-road places, has long been a crying evil and burning shame to an intelligent people. It was but the other day that a gentleman who met with reverses in fortune, and whose property was sold under the sheriff's hammer, informed us that his plantation that cost him three thousand dollars, was knocked off at five hundred dollars only, for the reason that no one out of the immediate neighborhood knew of the sale, and only fifteen persons attended it. He avers that three men outside of the State and two others in the State had offered him nearly as much as he gave for it, but that on account of the obscure manner of advertising neither of these men knew of the Sheriff's sale—indeed he (being abroad) was not informed of the time of sale himself. We cite this as one of thousands of similar instances of the sacrifice of property at Sheriff's sales from obscure advertising, and long before we published a paper we saw this evil and wrote several articles calling the attention of our law-makers to it.

"But it will doubtless be charged that such a law would benefit publishers of papers. Admitted. But it would at the same time benefit the parties interested tenfold. God knows that the press of North Carolina need all the help that legislation can bestow, and go where you may in the United States, old printers will tell you that this State is the poorest place on earth for a newspaper, Why? Because the laws have so little advertising done, and then so many of the people get their newspaper reading by 'borrowing.'"

— Eight years ago Stephen Mead, of Pennsylvania, told his wife to "shut up," and she hasn't spoken a word since.

CUBA.

HAVANA, Dec. 17.

The proposed enrollment for military duty of all men between 18 and 45 years of age—a fourth of whom are to be conscripted for active service—is gaining advocates.

The Diaro says: We are now at the 15th of December, and have raised no means and done nothing new to crush the rebellion. Let us give a fresh impulse to the winter campaign if we would advance on the road to a pacification of the Island. The enemy will gain time and territory, and we will have cause to deplore our criminal vacillation. Without a great and united movement on our part, the war will drag on as it has to the present hour.

It has consumed, annually, from ten to fifteen thousand soldiers and forty millions of dollars.

When we find ourselves fallen, never to rise again, we will bitterly regret our short-sighted lack of preparation.

The Vose de Cuba shows that the prolonged resistance of Cartagena is draining the resources of Spain and weakening her power. Castelar is not strong enough now to oppose the exactions of foreign governments, which nearly all tend to the destruction of Cuba, and the longer his declining power is respected and obeyed in Cuba the greater is the probability that the object of those foreign demands will be accomplished.

Several letters appear in the evening journals, addressed to the Captain General, calling on him to declare the Island in a state of seige, and to enroll the citizens.

A steamer from Cadiz arrived to-day with eight hundred soldiers and one hundred and fifty seamen.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 17.

Wilson, of Indiana, from the Judiciary committee, reported a resolution authorizing that committee to send for persons and papers in the enquiry as to the official conduct of Judge Busteed, of Alabama; and also a resolution instructing that committee to inquire and report whether Judge Darrell, of Louisiana, should be impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, with power to send for persons and papers. Adopted.

The Senate proceedings this a. m. show little probability of the passage of the bankrupt repeal before the holidays. Fenton is speaking on the finances, and this chokes off the Louisiana question for to-day.

NEW YORK.

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

THE NEW YORK DAILY TIMES

IS THE

ONLY REPUBLICAN JOURNAL

IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

The high character which THE DAILY TIMES has borne in the past is a sufficient guarantee for its conduct in the future It will continue to advocate the cause of the public, without reference to the interests of individuals. No expense will be spared in the maintenance of its position as the foremost of American journals. It is the best daily family newspaper in the country. It has the latest news, the best foreign correspondence, and the largest staff of home correspondents. All objectionable news and advertisements are rigidly excluded.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

THE DAILY TIMES, per annum, including the Sunday Edition.....$12
THE DAILY TIMES, per annum, exclusive of the Sunday Edition.....$10
The Sunday Edition, per annum.....$ 2

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES contains a very careful epitome of our foreign and home correspondence; an interesting selection of current literature from the best foreign and domestic magazines; a choice variety of agricultural matter, and the very latest news up to the hour of going to press. TERMS—$3 per annum. Club rates—Two copies, one year, $5; Ten copies, one year, $25, and one extra copy free. New names may be added to clubs at any time during the year, at club rates.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

THE WEEKLY TIMES is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic, and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foreign, are reviewed at length, and a large quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. Its market reports are the fullest and most accurate in the country. TERMS—$2 per annum.

Club rates of THE WEEKLY—all to one Post Office address—Five copies, per annum, $7 50; Ten copies, per annum, $12 50; Twenty copies, per annum, $22; Thirty copies, per annum, $30, and one extra copy to each club For every club of fifty, one copy of THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES to the getter-up of the club.

When the names of subscribers are required to be written upon each paper of the club at one Post Office address ten cents for each copy additional to the above rates.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY mailed one year to clergymen at the lowest rates.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New-York or Post Office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured send the money in a registered letter.

Terms, cash in advance.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES,
tf New-York City.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Fayetteville, N C, Nov 1, 1873 147

Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Tyndall, Prof Huxley, Lord Lytton, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Oliphant, Dr W. B. Carpenter, C, Kingsley, Erckmann Chatrain, Ivan Turguenieff, Matthew Arnold, W. F. H. Lecky, Miss Thackeray, Miss Muloch, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, Katharine C. Macquoid, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald. Froude, and Gladstone, are some of the eminent authors lately represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turguenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilcation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable currant literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence,"—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year (52 numbers,) postpaid, on receipt of $8; or six copies for $40.

EXTRA OFFERS FOR 1874.

To new subscribers, now remitting $8 for the year 1874, the last six numbers of 1873 will be sent gratis; or to those wishing to begin with the New Series, the numbers of 1873 and 1874 (104 numbers), will be sent for $13; or, to those perferring, the publishers make the following

Club prices for the best home and Foreign Literature.

("Possessed of THE LIVING AGE and one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation.") Phila. Bulletin.

For $10, any one of the American $4 Monthlies (or Harper's Bazar, or Appleton's Journal, weekly) is sent with THE LIVING AGE for a year; or, for $9, THE LIVING AGE and Scribner's St Nicholas; or, for $8.50, THE LIVING AGE and Our Young Folks.

Address LITTELL & GAY, Boston.

THE EVENING POST

is devoted almost exclusively to the prospects of the Cape Fear region. Its columns are always open for the discussion of matters of local interest, that both sides may be understood. It should, therefore, be endorsed and sustained by our citizens of both political parties. Only $5 a year in advance, or fifty cents a month.
